Pacific and Northwestern railways was wrecked today near here, severely injuring a number of passengers. Wm.
Thompson of Dallas was probably fatally hurt.St. Petersburg, March 30.—The ministry of finance denies that it has dispatched agents abroad to negotiate a loan, and says that therefore there is no foundation for the rumors that such agents have unsuccessfully attempted to enter into negotiations for this purpose with foreign

CURED BY MUNYON'S PAW-PAWHON. KITT GOULD, OF CHICAGO, EX-SENATOR AND PROMINENT ATTORNEY, CURED BY PAW-PAW.Hon. Kitt Gould, representative of the Third Senatorial District, and for four years the attorney for the State Board of Pharmacy of Illinois, says: I have been a great sufferer from catarrh of the stomach, dyspepsia, and indigestion, which completely upset my nervous system. Munyon's Paw-Paw has driven out these distressing ailments and has restored all my old time energy and vim. It is a marvelous remedy.I am pleased to state to the world that my Paw-Paw has proved itself to be not only a positive cure for Dyspepsia and all forms of Nervousness, but is without doubt an infallible cure for Catarrh.When I put this remedy upon the market I knew that it would cure Dyspepsia. I knew that it would cure Nervousness. I knew that it would cure Sleeplessness.
I also knew that it would purify the blood and give strength and energy to the whole system, but I had not thought of it as a Catarrh cure; but the hundreds of testimonials that I have received from people that have been cured of Catarrh prove to me that this new vegetable preparation is destined to be a great blessing to Catarrh sufferers.It cures Catarrh by purifying the blood.
I do not believe it is possible for a person to have pure blood who has not a well stomach and good digestion. My Paw-Paw makes the stomach well; makes one eat and digest all that they do eat.
It makes one sleep; it rests the nerves.
It puts vitality into every fiber, tissue

Munyon's Paw-Paw has no equal as a Spring Medicine.

SENATE HAS

Indictment only because of the statute of limitations.Mr. Scott said he did not think that statement correct, and Mr. Clay said that he had been mistaken in showing that this explicit statement had been officially made.Mr. Scott read a letter from Assistant Attorney General Robb, of the postoffice department, saying that the evidence did not warrant the indictment of Mr. Heath.Mr. Clay replied by saying that Mr.
Scott was the only "champion" of Mr.
Heath that had appeared on the floor of the senate, and Mr. Scott replied that it was Mr. Robb and not himself who was the champion."Then," responded Mr. Clay, in attentional tones, "he has not a single champion here to defend him."Mr. Scott: "According to Mr. Robb's statement, he does not need any defense."Mr. Clay replied by giving the details of the employment of Mr. Louis as superintendent of supplies for the postoffice department, which, he said, had been accomplished by Mr. Heath by first appointing Louis as cashier in the Kansas City postoffice and then having him proceed with the work here without ever having seen the Kansas City postoffice.Heath, he said, had been anxious to secure a man in sympathy with himself in the purchase of supplies, and the appointment at Kansas City had been made because of Louis' inability to pass the civil service examination. Reviewing Mr.
Louis' career in the department, Mr. Clay said that he had increased prices paid for supplies from 25 to 75 per cent.

LIKES BRISTOW.

"All this," said Mr. Clay, "is interesting. You may pick on Bristow if you wish, but he has done a work that I appreciate."He then proceeded to give specific instances of the charges against Louis, including in them the one that he had ceased buying good ink at 16 cents a pound and instead had contracted to pay 30 cents. Nor would he concede, he added, as Mr. Scott suggested, that this had been done because the 16-cent ink was not adapted to the purposes to which it was put.He urged an investigation as the only method of determining the truth of the charges made. The president, Mr. Bristow and Messrs. Conrad and Bonaparte had all said that Heath should be investigated, and he thought they should be taken at their word. If Mr. Bristow's charges against Heath were not true, they constituted a malicious and gross slander, and Mr. Heath should have the right to defend himself against them.Mr. Scott then said that it never had been his purpose to believe a man guilty until he had been proven to be, although Mr. Heath may be all that the senator from Georgia had charged him with. He read from a statement by Mr. Beach, attorney for the District of Columbia, to the effect that all the evidence was before the grand jury and it was regarded as insufficient to warrant the indictment of Mr. Heath.The senate, at 5:30 p. m., went into executive session and at 5:35 adjourned.

ELECTRIC LAMP COMBINE.

Marked Change Will Take Place in the Business.Pittsburg, March 30.—The Post tomorrow will say:The organization of a new electric lamp combination under the domination of the General Electric company, it is learned from reliable authority, was accomplished in New York today, and a marked change will take place in the future operations of the company.The rate of the electric lamp at one, and but two grades are to be provided for the trade.

REFUSE THE REQUEST.

Will Not Issue Passes to Live Stock Shippers.Chicago, March 30.—Traffic officials of the western roads have decided to refuse the request of the Live Stock association for the resumption of passes to livestock shippers. It was held that no state has the right to pass a law requiring a railroad to give something for nothing.Grand Rapids, Mich., March 30.—Grand river is receding and the greatest flood danger seems to have passed.

TO ENTIRE COURT

Henry J. Allen Asks for Alternative Writ.

TAKES A NEW LEGAL TACK

Contents That Law Creating Election Board Is Invalid.Topeka, March 30.—D. R. Hite, attorney for Henry J. Allen, today filed in the supreme court an application for an alternative writ of mandamus to compel J. R.
Burrow, secretary of state, to certify to the county clerk in the Second congressional district Allen's name as the Republican nominee for congress. This is a new tack in the Allen-Bowersock contest. It is contended that the law creating the state election board is unconstitutional and the board therefore has no power to decide contests. Chief Justice Johnson held the proposition for presentation to the entire court. The application involves the First district contest as well as the Second.

SUNDRY CIVIL BILL.

House Makes Some Progress in Routine Work.Washington, March 30.—Substantial progress was made today by the house in the consideration of sundry civil bill. It pages being disposed of, leaving only 21 to be read. No amendments of general importance were made.Mr. Bartlett of Georgia briefly replied to the statements of Mr. Gillett of Massachusetts, made last Monday on the negro question. He said that the Massachusetts member had lectured the south for disregard of violations of the law, whereas in the city of Marion, Mass., persons who had been arrested and paraded through the streets as heroes. He believed that the people of the south are entitled to work out the negro problem "as God shall will it."Mr. Crumpacker, of Indiana, declared that 5,000 persons have been mobbed and put to death in the last twenty years in the United States.An amendment was agreed to appropriating $50,000 for continuing the wagon road into the Mount Rainier national park, of which sum $50,000 shall be used on surveying and estimating the cost of a wagon road along the most practicable route from the eastern boundary of the Mount Rainier forest reserve into the park.Mr. Maddox, of Georgia, vigorously protested against national park commissioners. Out of the appropriation $50,000 for the Chickamauga and Chattanooga national park, the commissioners and others received salaries amounting to $15,000.Mr. Hemenway offered an amendment directing the secretary of war to submit in the annual estimates at the next session of congress a proposition providing for the construction of existing commissions and putting the national parks under the charge of one man or a commission.Mr. Maddox quoted from the remarks of General Boynton before a subcommittee, in which he said that one commissioner could look after Chickamauga park as the work was about finished. General Boynton, he said, was the most experienced man in this work that he knew of, and he took it for granted that if a national commissioner would be appointed General Boynton would be at his head.A motion of order against the amendment by Mr. Hill was sustained.At 5:10 the house adjourned until tomorrow.

ROYALTY PAYS VISIT.

England's King and Queen Ahe Guests of Denmark.Copenhagen, March 30.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra arrived here today to attend a family gathering on the occasion of King Christian's 58th birthday.They were received at the railway station by all the members of the royal family, the cabinet ministers, diplomatic corps and civil and military authorities.After their majesties had inspected the guard of honor and the authorities had been presented, the royal party entered carriages, King Edward and King Christian occupying the first and Queen Alexandra and the Crown Prince Frederick and the Crown Princess Louise the second. They drove to the palace enthusiastically greeted by great crowds lining the route.

RANK AND PAY.

Would Have a Law to Reward Merit-ous Acts of Chaplains.Washington, D. C., March 30.—President Roosevelt and Representative Hull, chairman of the military affairs committee of the house, today discussed a bill which provides a higher rank for the army chaplain, in which the president is interested. It is urged that sufficient provision is not made in the present law for rewarding any army chaplains for meritorious services. During the Spanish-American war several chaplains were recommended for gallant services, but it was impossible to give them the reward.
The war department favors legislation to increase the rank and pay of chaplains.
